

Final Exam Preparation – Chronology Review, Part One

Directions: Match each date with the description. Don't "memorize." Instead, understand general order and chronology. When descriptions are unfamiliar, search the packets for meaning and general significance to better hone your understanding.

1215	_____	A. Act of Supremacy and "English" Church
1302	_____	B. Siege of Constantinople
1309-1378	_____	C. The Ninety-Five Theses
1378-1417	_____	D. Peace of Augsburg
1380s	_____	E. The Restoration
1412; 1415	_____	F. The Reconquista
1415	_____	G. Posthumous Publication of The Prince
1337-1453	_____	H. Galileo's Dialogue
1440	_____	I. Diet and Edict of Worms
1453	_____	J. German Peasants' Revolt
710-1492	_____	K. St. Bartholomew's Day Massacre
1492	_____	L. Institutes of the Christian Religion ; Calvinism
1517	_____	M. Magna Carta
1521	_____	N. Peace of Westphalia
1524	_____	O. The French Revolution
1532	_____	P. Prince Henry the Navigator lands in Ceuta
1534	_____	Q. The Interregnum
1536	_____	R. Locke's Second Treatise on Civil Government
1545-1563	_____	S. Jan Hus Excommunication and Execution
1555	_____	T. Invention of the Printing Press
1572	_____	U. Western Schism
1598	_____	V. Pope Boniface VIII's Unam Sanctam
1618-1648	_____	W. Edict of Nantes
1632	_____	X. Council of Trent
1648	_____	Y. John Wycliffe's Conclusions
1642-1649	_____	Z. The Glorious Revolution
1649-1660	_____	AA. The Thirty Years' War
1651	_____	BB. Columbus's Arrival in the "New World"
1660	_____	CC. Avignon Papacy
1688-1689	_____	DD. Hobbes's Leviathan
1689-1690	_____	EE. English Civil War
1789	_____	FF. The Hundred Years' War